

Noncertificated Staff Physical Examinations

Bus driver employees shall be required to take physical examinations subject to the standards of the federal motor carrier regulations. The administration may request any noncertificated staff employee to have a physical examination at district expense if it appears that the person's physical welfare is impairing his/her job performance.

Legal source: Idaho Code 33-1509 "Chauffeurs - Definition - Qualification - Duties."

Date of adoption: September 26, 1996